PLAN OR DEATH.

SITUATION EASTERN ERNAD STILL SERIOUS.

DIAN PLAYED ALIVE.

CALCUTTA, October 3.

The situation in Eastern Ernad is still serious. The rebel leader Chembasserie Thangal is reported to have declared martial law and to have threatened to kill every Hindu refusing to join Islam. The rebels complain that the Hindus are helping the Government. Thousands of refugees have arrived at Manjeri where they have been accommodated in shops. They tell terrible stories of barbarity. For example Chembasserie played a game of man against the military with milk. The rebels are sheltering in the hills where they descend at night to the villages where Moplah women supply them with food and beat drums when the military approach.

"DEATH OR INDEPENDENCE."

BOLSHEVISTS AND MOSLEMS FIGHT AT BAKU.

LONDON, October 3.

According to the Azerbaijan information bureau in London, thousands of casualties occurred in a fierce battle between Bolshevik troops and Moslems at Baku. It appears that Azerbaijan insurgents hoisted the national flag inscribed "Independence or death!" Bolshevik warships on the Caspian thereupon fired at the town, whence, after stubborn fighting, the Tartars retired. An Azerbaijan red regiment joined the insurgents. It is reported that the Bolsheviks have offered to negotiate.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR DIVINE BLESSING.

LONDON, October 3.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, as president of the world alliance for promoting international friendship through the churches, has sent letters to the presidents of the national councils of the United States, European countries, Japan and Turkey appealing to all the Christian churches to set apart November 6 as a day of prayer for divine blessing on the Washington Conference.

ANOTHER 15 PER CENT. DROP.

IRON AND STEEL WAGES DROP 13 1/2 PER CENT SINCE JANUARY.

LONDON, October 3.

Under the sliding scale adopted by the board of conciliation and arbitration of the manufactured iron and steel trade of North England, wages will be reduced 25 per cent. immediately, making the total reductions since January 13 1/2 per cent. The present wage scale is 97 1/2 per cent. above that prevailing before the war.

LYONS FAIR OPENED.

A UNIQUE DISPLAY OF FRENCH GOODS.

PARIS, October 3.

The ninth Lyons fair was inaugurated by the Lyons Mayor, Senator Herriot, assisted by representatives of several nations. The fair offers a unique display of French goods, and testifies to French industry's unremitting efforts towards pre-war prosperity.—Havas.

AMERICAN COTTON.

CROP ONLY HALF LAST YEAR'S FINAL YIELD.

LONDON, October 3.

An official report of the condition of the cotton crop on September 25, indicates that the crop amounts to 6,537,000 bales compared with the 1920 final yield of 13,439,000. Stocks are unchanged.

ALLIED DEBT TO AMERICA.

NOT A QUESTION FOR THE DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, October 4.

It is authoritatively stated that the United States Government considers the allied debt not properly a question for discussion at the disarmament conference.

DAMAGES FOR "DOCTOR."

WRONGFUL ARREST PROVED.

HOW OVER RENT RECEIPT.

A Chinese "doctor" who confessed that his sole claim to the title was its appearance on a signboard hung outside his premises, appeared in the Summary Court to-day as the plaintiff in an action for damages (estimated at $500) for assault and false imprisonment. The defendant was a Chinese shoemaker called Hu Pui who lives at 31 Queen's Road East.

Mr. F. E. Nash, who appeared to support the claim, explained that the plaintiff, Wong King Yin, was an assistant to his brother who was also a Chinese doctor. The latter leased a row of 14 houses in Queen's Road East and the ground floor of one of them was occupied by the defendant. The plaintiff helped his brother in collecting rent from the houses and it was in connection with certain rent receipts that the dispute occurred which led to the plaintiff being marched off to the police station at the defendant's instigation.

In his evidence the plaintiff said that about 6 p.m. on September 8, he went to see the defendant and gave him a proper rent receipt in exchange for a temporary one issued previously. The defendant then asked him to take the rent for the eighth month but witness declined to accept it just then, not having a proper receipt form with him. Hu Pui then caught him by the chest with one hand and struck him with the other, blowing a police whistle meanwhile. Witness wanted to blow his police whistle, too, but when he drew his hand into his pocket for it the defendant intercepted him. Then two Europeans and an Indian constable appeared and the defendant asked that witness should be arrested. Witness agreed to go anywhere with them but asked to be permitted to go by rickshaws. The Europeans and the Indian constable caught hold of him, however, and the whole party walked along to the No. 2 Police Station at Wanchai.

At the police station the Sergeant in charge questioned the defendant who declared that witness ought to be locked up. Eventually, after being in custody for about a quarter of an hour, he was released.

"Have you any qualifications of any sort?" queried Mr. H. E. Denys, cross-examining on behalf of the defendant. "Well no," was the plaintiff's naive admission. "All I've got is a signboard outside the door." The Court had another smile when he added that while he hadn't got any diplomas himself his father had been a "medical officer to the army."

An Indian sergeant stated that he arrested the plaintiff by direction of the defendant who alleged that the plaintiff had given a false receipt. He caught hold of the defendant and brought him along to the police station.

Acting Sub-Inspector Shafton gave evidence that when the party arrived at the station the defendant charged the plaintiff with attempting to obtain rent and with issuing false receipts. After hearing what the defendant had to say he decided that the charge was a false one and had the plaintiff released.

Mr. Denys submitted at this stage that there was no case to answer but was directed by the Puisne Judge (Mr. J. R. Wood) to go ahead with his evidence. The defendant then went into the witness box and denied that he was responsible for the plaintiff's arrest. The plaintiff, he said, did not give him a proper receipt.

He abused witness who then caught him by the tail of his coat whereupon the plaintiff produced a police whistle and blew it.

Two of the defendant's folk were called but they were not able to throw much light on the controversy. Addressing the Judge Mr. Denys argued that it had not been shown that the defendant was responsible for the plaintiff's arrest. He was, quite justified in making a complaint and if the police chose to take the matter up, and arrest the plaintiff, then it was nothing to do with him.

His Honour found that the plaintiff had proved his case and assessed the damages at $25, with costs.

TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, OCT. 4, 1921.

"PLEASE KEEP IT OUT OF THE PAPER."

The time has come to announce
once more that people really must not ask us to "keep it out of the paper."
They will but waste their time and ours. Strong as their reasons may appear to them, they are windblown
straws as compared with the compelling reasons that forbid us to "oblige."
That is how they express it; all we are asked is to be "obliging." Poor
So-and-so has "got into trouble,"
been exposed in Court; "his wife is at Shanghai for the good of her health,
and if she sees it in the papers she will be upset. Please leave it out. It is of no interest to anybody, anyway."
It is with arguments like that they come to us. What happens when an editor is caught in a weak moment,
and thus per-suaded to be obliging?
Nothing recognizable at the time, but later—the same request is made in a case that really should not be hushed
up. "It cannot be done," says the
now strong-minded editor. "Oh, yes,
it can," comes the retort. "You did it for So-and-so, and I cannot see why you cannot do it for me." It looks as if the editor is demonstrably
in the wrong, and so he is, not for doing the right thing now, but for having done wrong before, when he was "obliging." Whether newspapers
should be published at all or not,
whether they are a bigger nuisance
than a benefit is not the question for us to settle here. The position is that newspapers, for good or ill, or both,
are part of our communal life. They are established and their duty is to give the news. That kind of news
the kind we are usually urged to leave

out, by interested parties, is perhaps,
however uninteresting to habituated
newspaper readers, the most educational and important. The people cannot all attend Court to learn their own laws. They learn them from the newspaper reports. The newspaper which reports that So-and-so was fined $50 for breach of some Ordinance, is really doing propaganda work for the Government. Besides, as we have already reminded you, newspapers are an established part of our social machinery, and, however
"obliging" an editor personally might wish to be, he must know that the newspaper publicity in such cases
has come to be regarded as part of the penalty for the lawbreaker. It is unthinkable that he has the right
to vary the penalty in that way,
reducing it for his friends, or for the friends of his friends, while letting the full burden rest on offenders
who happen to be strangers to him, or to have no influence. To be fair he would have to omit all police court
reports. "Then do that," no doubt
the interested applicant would say,
but we do not think we need argue at any length the unreasonableness of that. The Government would have a right to object, and the whole of the law-abiding section of the community
could fairly protest. The China Mail desires it to be understood and known once for all that so far as it is concerned, its answer to all such requests will be a flat and final "No."
Our friends are therefore advised to avoid the Police Courts. If they figure there, and ask us to "keep it out of the paper," we cannot
honestly "oblige" them,
and will not try. We may even, if provoked by persistence in this unreasonable request, consider the feasibility of giving such cases extra
and unusual prominence.

"Habet aliquil ex iniqua omni
magnam exemplum, quod contra
singulos utilitate publicis repperit."
This maxim of Tacitus has to be remembered in what seem really "hard luck" cases, where, for example, an innocent parent pleads for such mitigation of the suffering caused him
by an errant offspring. Compassionate once in such a case, although doubtful
of our right and very reluctant, we
"stretched the point" and suppressed
a report, and the expressions of gratitude offered were some compensation for our mental uneasiness.
But one of the other papers published
the case, so that our sacrifice was largely wasted. Long after we had an opportunity of estimating the worth of that pleading parent's gratitude. He had some advertising to give out. He gave it to the paper
that had refused to "oblige" him,
and not to us who did. Mentioning this example in the presence of our eccentric contributor "Adversarius,"
that unsympathetic person jeered.
"Serves you right," he said. "You ought to have known better. Cast your bread upon the waters, and bid
it a fond and final adieu, so far as Hongkong is concerned."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The vernacular press reports that all former private German properties
in Hankow, confiscated by the Chinese authorities, have been returned to their original owners.

In consequence of the activity of pirates, Shanghai rice merchants are arranging to sail their boats bringing cargo to Shanghai in fleets, under the protection of the Water Police.

The total output of the Kailan Mining Administration's mines for the week ending September 17, 1921, amounted to 64,858 tons and the sales
during the period, to 84,651 tons.

A Japanese named Hideo
Torio, has been sentenced at Singapore to four years' rigorous imprisonment for defrauding the Netherlands
Trading Society of a sum of $46,000,
by means of a forged draft. Hideo
was formerly in business for himself
in Rangoon.

The death is announced in Yokohama of Bishop Walter Russell Lambuth, D.D. Bishop Lambuth was born in Shanghai in 1854. After taking M.A. and M.D. degrees in America, he returned to China and served as a medical missionary at Shanghai, Soochow, and Peking from 1877 to 1886. He founded and was in charge of Soochow Hospital from 1882
to 1885, and the M.E. Hospital in Peking from 1885 to 1886. He was elected bishop in 1910.

The wedding was solemnized at H. M. British Consulate and later at the Holy Trinity Cathedral,
on September 28, of Miss Katherine Beatrice Coombes, of Southampton
and London, to Mr. Lewis J. Parlane,
a well known resident of Shanghai.
Miss Coombes was a nursing sister
in a nursing home and has seen service
with the Red Cross in France during the war. Mr. Parlane has been connected with the General Electric Company of China for some years.

LOCAL LITERARY OUTPUT.

THE SECOND "SWASTIKA"

The Swastika, produced as a vehicle
for the presentation of amateur literary efforts locally, has made its second appearance, under the editorship of Mr. E. W. Hamilton. When the scheme was first mooted, we gave
it every encouragement in our power.
We did not know of how much or how little of literary talent our Colony
might be possessed; but we felt that it ought to have its chance. A quarterly magazine on some such
lines as these offered it that chance,
more than the daily newspapers have been offering, since their range is limited chiefly to writings of one category, news or comment on news.
Even now we have not evidence sufficient to warrant the assertion that we have not very much literary talent available, since it could be said
that some exists which for one reason or another has not embraced the opening offered by the Swastika. We do say, however, that if the Swastika,
so far as it has gone, represents the maximum output, it is scarcely worth carrying on. The excellent
"sympathetic" feature even yet has not been properly developed, and we are obliged to suspect a certain editorial slackness here. Such things require vigorous organising, and Mr.
Hamilton has an air of carrying his responsibilities lightly.

The longest item is a parody on Fitzgerald's Rubaiyat, of which,
because it was written by a young man who has since died, we would have preferred not to say much. Since, however, it has been picked out for honourable mention by two of the other papers, we feel obliged to point out that Omar is parodied with fatal ease (superficially); that as a parody this is not good; and as verse it can claim
no merit other than the slight humour
which suffices to tickle the Mess Room. To say of it, as the Post did,
that it is "really quite a good parody
both of the form and spirit of Fitzgerald's translation," is to exhibit amazingly bad judgment or astoundingly careless use of language.
Fitzgerald's lines, for the most part,
happen to be poetic; these are not.
As for the "spirit," there is no
opening for intelligent comparison.
Criticism is public service. Some measure of how Hongkong is served may be got by noting that the Telegraph
names this item as undoubtedly the best thing in the book. Sometimes, in part,
literary criticism permits the factor of personal taste to be allowed for, but there are certain elemental criteria that cannot be disregarded. It seems that the journalistic amateurs in criticism are uncannily of these.

The "Blue Lustre Jug" is a good story, neatly and compactly told.
Follows a pretty poem—literally, having the quality of prettiness—by
"Keith West," a poem marred, in our judgment, by the line
"Spring, darkness-scented, with her bursting pods,"
of which we have to say only that darkness does not smell, and that spring is not the season for bursting pods. Pods usually mean seed pods.
If it be claimed as "poetic licence"
for the sheaths that spring
foliage must burst, we reply that too much licence prevents poetry. Nathe-
less, we repeat, a "pretty" poem,
pretty sounding, if meaningless.

Then comes a bit of "prose" entitled "Nocturne," praising the unde-niable natural beauties of England by belittling those of Hongkong. Verdict:
undistinguished. Prose, qua prose,
should have certain poetic qualities
to make it worthy of the name.

After that some simple verses,
chastely passionate, with a hint of allegory. They show power despite their simplicity of form, and our comment is therefore "promising."

Of the sketch by the same author,
"An Indian Bazaar," we can say
"this is prose." To our taste the last three lines should have been omitted,
as anti-climax, intruding the irrele-
vance that there was a French witness, implying a moral judgment. Had it stopped on the word "softly," it would have been a vignette, a suggestion of atmosphere and colour and life. Read it aloud, and you'll understand what we mean.

The "Peeps at Personalities" by
"P.T.L." make very interesting and suitable reading, and are told in just the appropriate easy conversational tone. We regret that the author did not capture for "snapping" more
"personalities" of the eminence of Spencer.

Now comes "Keith West" again,
making ample amends with a highly
concentrated, almost epigrammatic, poem on a dying Greek. It is so good
and so short that we annex it, thus:
"REMINISCENCE ARDOR."

Dying, his thoughts to Greece
returned—
Returned the picture of his
vine-clad hill:
And the faint fire of life within
him burned.
The faster for a face, remembered still.

SIR ROBERT HO TUNG.

HONOURED BY PRESIDENT IN PEKING.

Sir Robert Ho Tung, who returns to Hongkong from Peking received a special audience of the President.
President Hsu spoke in the highest terms of Sir Robert's keen interest in China and Chinese affairs and his fine work in aiding and promoting Chinese industries and expressed the hope that Sir Robert
would soon return to Peking.

On September 27, Sir Robert received
the appointment of Honorary
Adviser to the President of the Chinese Republic, and the appointment of Honorary Adviser to the Chinese delegation to Washington.

These two tributes mark the high esteem in which Sir Robert is held by the presidency and Waichiaopu, and which is shared by all departments
and circles in Peking.

CROWN LAND SALES.

A dozen lots, ten of which were at Repulse Bay, were offered for sale at an auction of Crown Lands that took place at the P. W. D. yesterday afternoon. Mr. Parker Rees had charge of the hammer. Four of the Repulse Bay lots were sold but there were no bids at all for the other six. Those sold were:—Inland Lot 177, upset
price, $1,716; sale price, $3,370. No.
18, upset price, $2,780; sale price,
$2,800. No. 182, upset price, $2,175;
sale price, $3,280. No. 183, upset
price, $3,365; sale price, $4,370.

Mrs. E. M. Stapleton who was a keen bidder throughout managed to secure No. 183. The other lots sold were:—Kowloon Inland Lot 1430 for $2,400 (upset price, $1,354) and a lot

TYPHOON WARNING.

The telegram quoted below was received by the local American Con-sulate General from the Manila
Observatory:—
11.15 a.m. to-day.
Typhoon in about 140 deg. Long.
E. 14 deg. Lat. N. moving N.W.

Where, in the patterned silence
of a glade
Pan's pipes had played.

A gem.
Ensue some didactic verses, entitled
"Have you ever failed." Our opinion of them: Like the cuncte's egg in the anecdote. "Parts of it are excellent." Some are not.

Then a long story, humorous.
Distinctly appropriate, if the Swastika
is for amateur writers. Treatment amateurish.

A pretty sentiment from the Chinese, "The Pearl," is not quite successfully treated in two octets.
Pursues it three quatrains which taste as if rimmed from the Tupperney
Music stall—the banal honey-stuff
that suburban like to sing, and that always betrays a slight limp. However, we do not want to discourage anybody. Let C. R. try again.

Item, a narrative of an episode of the Chinese Revolution. Journalise.
C. R. does try again, and scores
much bigger points, with "Ichabod."
A fine parable of an aged leman, in whose "falling clasp" there is nothing left but the ashes and dust
of burnt out loves and the jewels
that lured her. Good verses.

A two-page article about nocties
in the game of Auction Bridge.
Didn't read it. No judge. We pass.
A humorous lyric, probably by the editor himself. In his style. Good enough, but not up to his best form.
Distinctly amusing—which is no
doubt all that was aimed at.
Some notes of a short stay in Constantinople. A business-like report
by a business-like pen.

By a lady very much impressed by Elman's violin music, a poetic tribute to "The Master." Fluent, smooth,
and with a touch of poetic eloquence.
Editorial piffle. Betrays the hoof prints of the amateur. But now—having given our honest and impartial judgment of the contents, let us
opinions by which we must stand or fall as critics, have we not indicated at least a fair dollar's worth? After all, if the general effect of our criticism be correctly assessed, we should stand in no peril of having applied to us Hamilton's atrocious
couplet:

"He, in truth, would be a very
nasty cur
Who would depreciate the current Swastika."

For that we have not meant or tried to do. We had hoped to see more and better work, and we may have been expecting unreasonably.
Perhaps we should quote the Man in the Street, whose opinion (unolicited)
was "No use had—'for Hongkong."

As a last comment the printing and get-up are good, being from the China Mail works. We shall probably find typographical faults with the production. Good printing done here.

HONGKONG CRICKET CLUB.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD.

AUSTRALIAN XI MAY COME HERE.

Hongkong cricketers will need to put in some extra hard practice at the nets this season for there is a chance that an Australian XI, which is to tour America next year will play a game here in the Autumn of 1922. So Mr. R. Hamcock, the President of the Hongkong Cricket Club, announced to members at the Club's annual meeting held in the pavilion last night.

Proposing the adoption of the annual report the President said:—
"Gentlemen, the Committee's report,
together with statement of accounts
and auditor's report attached having been in your hands for several days,
I will, with your permission, take them as read. The accounts, I think,
call for little comment."

As you will see the Club has had a very successful financial year, in fact a record, the previous best having been the season 1918-1920. The outstanding feature is that subscriptions
show a surplus on working expenses
of $2,117.15, a very healthy state of affairs, and I see no reason why this should not be repeated next season.
There is a profit on sales of cricket
and tennis gear and on the bar of $2,182.44, and two items under the head of expenses are non-recurring,
namely Company registration fee of $827.51 and Interport entertaining
expenses $461.54, totalling $1,289.05.
Our pavilion is written down to $1, 000, and this year we have written down our furniture, fixtures, cricket
and tennis gear $1,363.10 to $17,229,
a safe figure, so I think you will agree with me that we are in a very sound
position.

RECORD RUN-GETTER.

As mentioned in the report we played three Interport matches during the season, two here, against Shanghai
and the Straits, and we sent a team to Shanghai in the spring. I should like to take this opportunity of thanking the members of the Shanghai Cricket Club for the splendid reception they gave our XI during their visit.

Mr. Pearce once again heads the batting averages with the excellent
average of 56.43 for 26 innings, having made 1186 runs which, I think, is a record for a season here. Mr. Sayer heads the bowling with an average of 10.52.

It will interest those of you who do not know, to hear that we are in communication with a member of an Australian XI which is visiting America next year, with a view to their paying us a visit in the Autumn of 1922. Should things turn out as we hope, we may have another triangular Interport festival next year.

PAVILION SCHEME MODIFIED.

At meetings held some months ago
your Committee were empowered to make arrangements for building a new pavilion. As you all know it is the intention of the Government to take off the corner of our ground on which our present pavilion stands, to enable the tramway lines to be straightened out, and as our pavilion has served its purpose, and is no longer suitable,
and in addition is in a very bad state
of repair, thanks to the ravages of dry rot, and white ants, we must have another. We have had to modify our original scheme,
owing to the lack of support from members when subscriptions to debentures were first asked for, and the consequent delay in getting out tenders, and prices of building has so advanced that your Committee does not feel justified in going on with the original plans. I am pleased to say that the necessary support has now been promised for modified plans, and we hope to make a start before very long on the new building.

THANKS.

I should like to mention in this connection that your Committee has earmarked $4,000 of the funds we have in hand to start a sinking fund
for the redemption of the debentures.
The annual tennis tournament was,
as usual, a great success and the thanks of the Club are due to Mr.
Nisbet for all the hard work he did
on behalf of the players.

Mr. Maitland on leaving for home
in the spring resigned the office of President, which he had filled so ably
for many years, and I know I am only voicing your feelings, when I express on behalf of the Club the warmest thanks of the members for the keen interest and help he has displayed
during his long term of office.

Before proposing the adoption of the report and accounts I should like also to thank our Honorary Secretary, Mr. Greenhill, for his untiring efforts on behalf of the Club. The position of Hon. secretary to a Club of this size
is no sinecure and having been closely associated with him for some time,
I can testify to the immense amount of hard work he has done for the Club,
and it is largely owing to him that we find ourselves in the good position we are to-day. We offer him our best thanks for all he has done.

LOCAL FOOTBALL.

THE COMING SEASON.

YESTERDAY'S ASSOCIATION MEETING.

Arrangements for the coming football season were made at a well attended meeting of the Hongkong Football Association, which was held at the Victoria Barracks yesterday evening.

Mr. R. J. Wilton was in the chair,
and there were present: Messrs W. H.
Thomson and J. Watson (R.G.A.),
H. J. Farmer (Wiltons), B. Pasco
(Kowloon), W. Andrew ("Titania"), E. Moore ("Cairo"), H. C. Macnamara and J. Rodger (Club), C. H.
Blake (2nd League Secretary), D. D.
Urquhart (United), H. Kan (South China), S. Bickie ("Ambrose"), H. G.
Austin ("Tamar" and tenders), R. H.
Omar (St. Joseph's), G. B. Jones
(referee "Ambrose"), H. B. Donnan
(Garrison R.C.), J. McCubbin (R.B.),
G. T. May (Council), W. C. Hollands
(referee), F. T. James, C. S. Reynolds
and J. Robertson (Police), and M. L.
Railton (hon. sec., and treasurer).

The Officers announced that they will be unable to run a team of their own this season, but some of their players will join other clubs.
The University wished to enter a team in the second division as in former years.

Monday, October 10, was fixed as the last day on which entries may be received for forthcoming season.

The following teams entered the league:

First Division—"Tamar," R.G.A., Police, Kowloon, "Cairo," "Titania,"
"Ambrose," and South China.

The season begins on October 29.
Second Division—"R.G.A.," Kowloon, United, "Titania" (possibly),
South China (two teams), and
"Carlisle."

The season begins on October 22.
The allocation of grounds was discussed, and it was suggested that a representation be made to the Recreation Grounds Committee, in time for next season, as to football being authorised on the United Services Recreation Club ground at Gun Club
Hill. The Hongkong F.C. representatives promised to facilitate the use of their ground, as much as possible,
for Association games. The difficulty was that, when the Association team
was playing away, the R.U. by section
wanted the ground. The same position arose with regard to the Army
ground at Sookumpoo, and the number of grounds available for League
matches was stated to be reduced sometimes, to five.

PROPOSED INTERPORT.

An invitation was read which had been addressed to Shanghai to send a team to Hongkong this season. No definite reply had yet been received from Shanghai.

On the proposition of Mr. James, seconded by Mr. Palmer, it was agreed to issue an invitation, also, to Singapore to send a team.

Mr. McCubbin recalled occasions,
last season, when Chinese spectators
encroached on football grounds. It was agreed to request the South
China Association and the Indian R.C. to distribute leaflets amongst the spectators on this subject at the opening matches of the season.

An omission at the annual meeting
was repaired by the cordial approval
of a vote of thanks to Mr. Ralston,
the ex-hon. secretary, for his services.

The meeting concluded with an expression of thanks to the Chairman
for presiding.

According to the Shanghai Chinese press, a foreign landlord who visited his property to investigate
personally complaints by his tenants
against a proposed increase in rents
had his motor car damaged by a crowd of angry householders. The report adds that the proposed increase
has been reduced from $6 to $2.

With these remarks, gentlemen, I have much pleasure in proposing the adoption of the report and accounts
for 1920-1921, and after they have been seconded, I shall be pleased to answer to the best of my ability any questions members may ask.

Replying to a request by Mr.
Hamilton for information about the modified "pavilion" scheme the President said it was now intended to erect a one-storey building instead of two as was at first suggested. The accommodation generally would be quite up to date and there would be a flat roof from which members
would be able to watch matches.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Mr. Hancock was re-elected President and the following were made members of the committee:—Mr. H.
A. Nisbet, Mr. F. C. Hall, Mr. R. C.
Lambert, Hon. Mr. Claud Severn,
Major Bagnall, Mr. T. E. Pearce, Mr.
G. R. Sayer, Mr. E. J. R. Mitchell and Mr. R. E. A. Webster.

Mr. L. S. Greenhill was unanimously re-elected Hon. Secretary
and Mr. C. Bernard Brown was reappointed auditor.

SHACKLETON'S "QUEST" IN DIFFICULTIES.

UNABLE TO HOLD HER OWN AGAINST STRONG WIND.

TWO DESTROYED FROM LISBON.

Lisbon, October 3.

Shackleton's "Quest" is in difficulties off Cape Rosa owing to the strong wind. She is unable to hold her own and has asked for help. A tug has been despatched from Lisbon.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM.

EXPERTS DISCUSS INDUSTRIAL SITUATION WITH PREMIER.

London, October 3.

The experts who proceeded to the Guildhall to discuss the unemployment problem and industrial situation with Mr. Lloyd George spent a busy week-end though their deliberations led to no concrete decisions, the Premier intimating that he must first consult the other groups in London. The experts were very reticent but it was gathered that they favour a big highly important concrete scheme regarding which they are very hopeful. The Premier has now arranged to deliver a half-hour address on unemployment on October 3 at 11.15 p.m. in London at which, in order to save his voice, only pressmen will be present.

SWEDISH GENERAL ELECTION.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS GAIN 5 AND COMMUNISTS FIVE SEATS.

COPENHAGEN, October 3.

The Swedish general election resulted in the return of 93 Social Democrats with a gain of 18 seats, 62 Conservatives with a loss of nine seats, 51 Liberals with a loss of seven seats, 21 Agrarians with a loss of eight seats, six Left Socialists with a gain of one seat and seven Communists with a gain of five seats.

LEAGUE EXPENSES.

NEXT YEAR'S BUDGET OF 21,000,000 FRANCS PASSED.

GENEVA, October 3.

The Assembly unanimously passed the 1922 budget totalling 21,000,000 francs, showing a reduction compared with last year's of 392,000 francs.

INTERNATIONAL COURT.

CHINA RECOGNISES TRIBUNAL'S JURISDICTION.

GENEVA, October 3.

Mr. Wellington Koo has notified the League Assembly of China's ratification of the protocol for a permanent court of justice and her intention to recognise the court's jurisdiction as binding subject to reciprocity for five years.

MOTORISTS FINED

DRIVING MOTOR CYCLE FROM SIDE CAR.

AN IRREGULAR SUMMONS.

At traffic time in Magistrate Lindell's Court this morning, R. E. Atwell was charged at the instance of Sergeant Alexander, with not having full control of his motor cycle while driving in Nathan Road, Kowloon, at 11.15 p.m., on September 24; and with failing to produce his driver's licence.

With regard to the first charge, Sergeant Alexander explained that the defendant was driving the cycle from the seat in the side car. That did not give him full control of his vehicle.

Atwell: I deny that I did not have full control.

The Magistrate: Your feet were in the side car?—Yes.

Then I fail to see how you have full control. How would you apply the brake and pull up the cycle if a coolie suddenly ran in front of it?—I can swerve or drop into a lower gear.

But that would not stop the cycle dead—I have a hand trouble. Mine is a left handed side car, and the throttle and horn are near at hand. Besides, I fail to see how any vehicle can fail to pull up at the speed I was going—8 miles an hour. It is a common practice in England to drive from the left seat.

The Magistrate: Really? I never heard of it before.

Atwell: I have a motorist's handbook, and I can show a passage to you.

Mr. Wolfe, C.S.P. (who was present in Court), admitted that the practice was permissible in England, but said that fact did not make it any less dangerous.

Inspector Garrod said that the hand brake was not in working order. When it was applied, Sergeant Alexander was able to push the cycle several yards along Nathan Road.

Sgt. Alexander said that after he stopped the defendant, the latter begged him to push the cycle after hand brake had been applied several yards without any undue exertion.

The defendant said that at the time he was driving, he was under the impression that the gear was in working order. Only recently had it inspected.

With regard to the other charge, Atwell admitted that he did not produce his licence, with him that he pointed out to the Magistrate, regularly in the summons.

"I don't propose to raise any objection to it," he said. "I am admitting the offence."

The Magistrate (after examining the summons): Yes, it is a clerical mistake in copying the summons. To serve you on September 25 to attend Court on September 4, is certainly irregular! (Laughter). It is quite clear from the evidence that your hand brake was not sufficient to pull up the machine. Had it been in working order, you might have made a good case of it. You are fined $5 on each charge.

DANGEROUS CORNER.

COLLISION NARROWLY AVERTED.

The driver of motor car No. 328 was then charged at the instance of Mr. Wolfe, C.S.P., with reckless driving on Garden Road on the night of September 24.

Mr. Wolfe said that about 7.25 p.m., he was driving his car himself past Government House on his way to the tram station. When he reached the east garden gate, he sounded his horn and proceeded to take the bend into Garden Road. The next thing he knew was that the defendant's car came sharply round the corner. "I found that I was making straight for him," Mr. Wolfe said, "so I put on the brake hard, and stopped two or three feet from him." The defendant cut the corner instead of making a curve into it, and carried on.

The defendant said that he had to cut the corner, because there was a chair in his way. The chair was turning into Kennedy Road.

The Magistrate: That should not have obstructed you.

Mr. Wolfe: Yes, I think it would be just in the position to prevent him making a big sweep.

Mr. Wolfe added that two cars could not pass the bend abreast without scraping together. Had he not been aware that it was an extremely nasty corner and been driving slow in consequence, he would have hit the other car square in the middle of the body. That was happening the extreme left as he was. Had he been a little to the middle of the bend, he would have caught the defendant's glancing blow. A collision would have been inevitable had witness not stopped dead.

The defendant said that besides the chair, there was another car coming down Garden Road.

Mr. Wolfe: I must say that is untrue. There was no other car in the vicinity at the time. A fine of $15 was imposed.

GARDEN ROAD SPEEDING.

CHAIR PASSENGER TAKES ACTION.

Mr. E. W. Hamilton prosecuted the driver of motor car No. 463, owned by the Russell Street Garage, for reckless driving by speeding down Garden Road.

Mr. Hamilton said that when the defendant passed him at the junction of Kennedy Road the car was going at over 20 miles an hour. Before that, it had been going at anything between 30 and 50 miles an hour. The car was empty.

Inspector Garrod said that the control area on Garden Road was from the bend leading into Government House Road, to the Detention Barracks. Here the speed must not exceed 10 miles. The limit for other parts of the road was 15 miles.

The defendant said that he was travelling on second gear at between 13 and 14 miles before coming to the control area.

In the witness box, Mr. Hamilton said that he was proceeding up Garden Road in a chair about 7.50 p.m. on September 21, when a little below the corner of Kennedy Road, he saw the lights of a motor car near the Pumping Station at the entrance of Macdonnell Road. "It was travelling very fast. When he could see the car clearly, it was going so fast that he thought it was running away, and pulled his chair into Kennedy Road. The defendant slowed up before he got to the bend and passed it at about 20 miles an hour. He took the defendant's number as he passed the lamp post: it was No. 363. Before the defendant got to the bend, the witness estimated he was going at anything between 30 and 50 miles an hour.

The Magistrate: Your estimate is based on your experience?—Yes, I have often ridden a bicycle down the road, nearly every morning, almost, and know how dangerous it is. Although I don't drive a car myself, I strongly object to being driven fast down that road, and always keep my eyes on the speedometer.

Mr. Hamilton added that he reported the matter to the police by telephone.

Defendant: I did not know my number was being taken.

Inspector Garrod said that he had warned the accused as soon as he received the report, so there could be no excuse on that score.

Defendant: No man could drive fast on second gear.

The Magistrate: Nonsense.

Defendant: Not down that road. It has too many curves.

Mr. Hamilton said that he did not bring this case through any malice, but because he went up that road every day of his life. "And I am positively in fear of my life these days!"

Defendant: My car makes a tremendous noise when on second gear. That must have frightened Mr. Hamilton and made him think I was going fast.

The Magistrate: Oh, I see! You suggest that you frightened him, and he probably thought that it was a tank coming down the road? I find the case proved against you, and fine you $15.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The newly-organized Canton Stock and Produce Exchange celebrated its formal opening last Saturday.

Subscription of $1 to the Canton labourers' hospital, which has just been opened, entitles a worker to free medical attention.

A general meeting of members of the Hongkong Automobile Association is advertised to take place in the City Hall on Tuesday, October 25.

In connection with the Hongkong Football Association Section a practice will take place on the Club ground tomorrow, Wednesday, at 5.15 p.m.

About 5000 Canton bakers and waiters propose to establish a large union to include the bakers and waiters of Hongkong and Macao. A night school will be opened by the proposed union for the benefit of the members.

Next Monday, October 10, will be the tenth Anniversary of the birth of the Chinese Republic and the people of Canton city are busily preparing a fitting programme to celebrate the day. A programme committee has been formed to prepare the celebration. A mass meeting will be held at the East Garden while parades, fireworks, receptions, and entertainments will be the order of the day. President Sun Yat-sen will review the troops at the North Parade Ground.

INTERPORT DANCE THEFT

FOUR WEEKS' JAIL FOR V.R.C. COOLIE.

The V.R.C. coolie remanded yesterday by Magistrate Lindell on a charge of having stolen a silver cigarette case belonging to Mr. H. A. Castro during the Interport dance on Saturday night, was again before the Court this morning.

The Secretary, Mr. R. C. Wittell, said that at 2 a.m. on Sunday he received a report from Mr. Castro about the loss of the cigarette case. At 3 a.m. he warned all the Club boys to return the case to him if found. At 11 a.m. he mustered all the boys and coolies, the accused among them, and questioned them individually. The accused, who was shivering, produced an empty Westminster cigarette tin. Witness told him that it was a better tin than that. The accused then asked if it was a white metal one. The witness replied "Perhaps it is made of white metal. Have you got it?"

The accused then owned up to having taken it home, adding that he forgot to bring it back to the Club. The police were then summoned. Sub-inspector Clark accompanied the accused to his house and returned with the case. Mr. Wittell added that at 7.30 on Saturday night, before the dance started, he had warned all the boys and coolies to hand him anything they picked up. He took this precaution because a string of pearls had been lost in the ladies' dressing room that afternoon. Had the accused wished to hand the case to him, he could have found him at the Club, as he was "all over the place," and was the last man to leave after the dance.

A bar boy admitted that the accused had shown the cigarette case to him, but denied that anything was said. He thought accused was going to hand the case to Mr. Wittell.

The accused: There were three cigarettes in it. I took one and offered you one, but you would not take it?—No, that this is not true.

A bootmaker coolie and the carpenter both denied that the accused had shown them the case.

The Magistrate (to accused): If you think you can make me believe that you innocently took the case home, and yet smoked all the cigarettes in it, you are mistaken. You will go to jail for four weeks with hard labour.

Refusing to grant demands for higher wages, the Canton crockery shops closed their doors on Saturday.

Command orders state that officers invited to Government House on Thursday, October 6 will wear uniform. Dress-breeches and leggings. Swords will be worn.

A clean bill of health was returned for the Colony during the 48 hours ended yesterday. Last week four died from influenza, one from plague, and from puerperal fever. One imported case of paratyphoid fever, British, was also reported.

Very handy to shippers should be the list of liners calling at Hongkong compiled by the Shipping Department of the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha. Revised for September the list sets forth clearly and succinctly the destination and intermediate ports of every line touching here, together with the owning company's full name, that of its local agents, and the names of its steamers. Incidentally the list serves to show how many and distant are the ports that may be reached without leaving a steamer boarded here—New York, Buenos Aires, Capetown, Algiers, Copenhagen, Rio de Janeiro, Bremen, and many others.

GREAT BRITISH YARD TO CLOSE.

RESULT OF LABOUR DISPUTES.

A very significant step has just been taken by the famous British shipbuilding firm of Messrs. Yarrow and Co., Ltd., of Scotstoun, Glasgow, and formerly of Poplar, London. The following notice was posted up in their works on the Clyde:

NOTICE.
Owing to repeated strikes, reduction of output, and demarcation disputes which have taken place in various industries throughout the country, the cost of shipbuilding has become excessive, in addition to which, it is impossible to promise dates of delivery.

With the greatest regret we have, therefore, decided to temporarily close our works, with the exception of our experimental and research department, on or about the 30th of November.

We shall re-open when conditions enable business to be carried on with some chance of success.

We give this early notice of our decision so that our employees may have every opportunity of obtaining work elsewhere.

Yarrow & Co., Ltd.

After having distributed many millions of pounds in wages, and built some of the fastest vessels afloat, it is with great regret that the firm has arrived at the above decision.

The company has great faith in the future of the shipbuilding and engineering industries in Britain, and believes that prosperity will return when everyone realises that commercial undertakings can only be carried on with success in accordance with economic laws.

So soon as these laws are recognised it will enable the firm to re-open its works, and, as in the past, take some share in future progress.

In the meantime, the firm intends to continue experimental and research work so that the valuable information to be obtained will be available when full activities are resumed.

STEAMSHIP VALUES.

NINETY PER CENT DEPRECIATION IN TWELVE MONTHS.

The example of the great depreciation which has taken place in the value of second-hand steamers is furnished by the sale of the 25-year-old steel steamer "Kinsale," owned by the British-Hispano Line, Ltd., "Cardiff." This vessel, which was built by Richardson, Duck & Co., Stockton, and launched in August, 1896, has a dead weight capacity of 4,115 tons. She was purchased by the Penang Shipping Co., Ltd., "Cardiff," two years ago, at a cost of £82,500, and was sold in November last year to the British Hispano Line, Ltd., for £50,000. She has now been resold to Italian buyers for £29,000. Thus in the course of two years this vessel has depreciated from a value of £20 per deadweight ton to just over £2 a ton, a depreciation of 90 per cent.

Another interesting sale is that of the steel steamer "Temaire," of 550 tons deadweight, purchased by the Miel Shipping Co., Ltd., Cardiff, for less than £10,000. The vessel, which is to be renamed "Inisholm," has been bought to replace the steamer "Inisholm," which was lost. She was launched 31 years ago at Ayr. Eighteen months ago the "Temaire" changed hands at £25,000, and in June of last year at £23,500. She has just been overhauled and gone through her No. 3 survey, and is classed 100 A1. From this it will be seen that the vessel, which changed hands at £22 per deadweight ton 18 months ago, has now been sold for £18 a ton, a depreciation of 78 per cent.

THE PORT OF COLOMBO.

HARBOUR IMPROVEMENTS.

Colombo Harbour has been found inadequate to meet shipping demands, and the Ceylon Government is now considering its extension. The process of enlarging the harbour will involve enormous expenditure. Local experts believe that an inland wet-dock should be constructed on Blundenhall Swamp, and that the harbour extension should consist of a tidal basin inland toward the Ketchikama Swamp.

The Ceylon Government has made the necessary arrangements to feed oil-driven ships at Colombo by pipe lines laid from the harbour to large oil tanks, says Indian Motor News, and it is now preparing to build a series of Government oil installations having a capacity of 50,000 gallons each. These are to be rented out to the various oil companies operating there for a cheap, efficient, and uniform distribution of petrol and kerosene throughout the country. At present every oil merchant is required always to have a fat stock in hand.

GENERAL NOTES.

The s.s. "Oriental," the third of the four large vessels built at Kiangnan for the United States Shipping Board, on her trial run last week attained a speed of 13.48 knots.

The s.s. "Nile" will sail for Java to-morrow opening up the new passenger line of the China Mail Company between Shanghai and Hongkong and Singapore and Java.

The Shipping Board announces that it has accepted a bid of 2,100 dollars each for 201 of its wooden vessels. The purchaser is the Ship Construction and Trading Corporation. The vessels cost from 300,000 to 800,000 dollars each.

Statistics relating to the working of the principal ports are now available for the month of June. The registered tonnage of vessels arriving at United Kingdom ports in June was 6,596,470 tons, against 6,294,052 tons in May, and a decrease of 35.18 per cent compared with the corresponding period of last year: of vessels departing, the net registered tonnage was 6,500,494 tons, against 5,803,730 tons in May, and a decrease of 58.64 per cent compared with June, 1920. The imports at Manchester were 197,586 tons, exports 10,814 tons, re-exports 424 tons, making a total of 208,824 tons, against 174,685 in June of last year, and compared with 1,440,244 tons for London, 735,915 tons for Liverpool, 354,201 tons for Hull, 190,323 for Glasgow, and 157,296 for Bristol.

The agent of the Lloyd Triestino, at Shanghai has informed the Press, that he is in receipt of a cable from the company's head office at Trieste to the effect that the British Government has returned the str. "Korber," to the Lloyd Triestino and has not taken to pay all costs of repairs. The "Korber," which was on the Far Eastern run, was seized off Port Said in August, 1914, and taken to Alexandria. She was not, however, declared a prize by the Prize Court at that port, but was commandeered by the government and used throughout the war as a transport. There is reason to believe that all other boats belonging to this line, commandeered by the Allies, will shortly be returned to the Lloyd Triestino, with the exception of the str. "Bohemian," "China" and "Silesia," all of which were seized by the Chinese government when China declared war.

Some years ago a noted English firm of steam turbine manufacturers sent out to a remote part of Canada an electric power plant. The erector noticed when he assembled the parts that the nut adjusting block for taking up end-thrust was missing. As time was pressing, he ordered what he thought was required from the nearest engineering works in Vancouver, and advised his firm accordingly, observing that there was a flange and some loose bits which apparently fitted on the end of the turbine spindle—what were they for? His firm immediately cabled their erector to cancel his order to Vancouver, and to fit the "flange and loose bits," which was in fact the thrust block. The firm referred to (Messrs. Bellis and Morcom, of Birmingham) were one of the first to appreciate the advantages of the Mitchell thrust and fit it to steam turbines long before it was adopted for marine purposes. The innovation was so revolutionary that the mistake of the erector was quite excusable.

ITCHING BURNING RASH ON ARM

Neck and Head. Hair Fell Out Badly. Cuticura Heals.

"I had an itching and burning on my arm and neck, and also on some parts of my head. Then a rash appeared which caused my hair to fall out badly. I was treated, but could get no relief. After this I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I found great relief in a short time and now I am healed." (Signed) Miss Nora Woolley, 9, Chapel Street, Marple, Cheshire, England.
Prevent these distressing skin troubles becoming serious by making Cuticura Soap, and no other, your everyday toilet soap, assisted by little touches of Cuticura Ointment now and then. Scrub to cleanse, Ointment to heal.

ODDS AND ENDS.

MAINLY SCISSORS LOOT.

Wireless Possibilities.

Senator Marconi at the annual meeting of the Marconi Company at the Connaught Rooms speaking of the many recent important advances in aerial telegraphy and telephony, said that, subject to satisfactory arrangements with the Post Office, they hoped in the near future to create telephonic services with several foreign countries, and, provided they had the opportunity, as they hoped to have, of creating a wireless telegraphic service between England and Australia, it was quite within the range of possibility that they might hereafter supply Australia with telephonic communication. He criticised the failure of the Post Office at their station at Loughborough to use recent patents which were being employed in the American, French, and German stations.

A Coffin Trust.

The high cost of living in America is apparently exceeded only by the high cost of dying, according to the revelations of Government investigators, who announce the existence of a coffin trust in all large cities. It is stated that sufficient evidence has been obtained to secure the indictments under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law of the leading funeral directors of New York, Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, and other large cities, who are accused of entering into a conspiracy to rob the public. Coffins which cost 27 1/2 to manufacture are sold by undertakers by methods destructive of competition for $150, while inexpensive caskets costing $5 at the factory are sold to the poor for $75 or $100.

The Three Mile Limit.

In view of the recent seizure of a British schooner outside the United States three mile limit it is interesting to recall the rather nasty international incident finished in July, 1910, when the trawler "Onward II" was released by the Russian Government after energetic representations by the Foreign Office. The Hull fishing community were afraid that the matter would be made a precedent and all British trawlers, debarred from the White Sea, which was the reason of so much diplomatic bother being made over her capture and detention. When she was caught by two Russian men-of-war she was over forty miles from the nearest point of land, which appears to be enough to satisfy even a Russian's idea of the three mile limit, but even so it was touch and go whether she was not condemned. Fortunately our authorities stood their ground and insisted that no country had the right to extend its borders into the free seas according to its own sweet will. It was all part of the Masovite plan to make the White Sea a Russian lake in all particulars, especially with regard to the fishing rights, a plan which they have not given up even now.

Plane V Battle-Ship.

The battleship has not been rendered obsolete by the aeroplane, in the opinion of the American Joint Army and Navy Board, whose report on the recent aerial bombing tests off Virginia Capes was published in mail week. The report holds that the battleship is still the backbone of the fleet and the bulwark of the nation's sea defence, and that this will remain true so long as the safe navigation of the sea for purposes of trade or transportation is vital to success in war. Despite the fact that the board admits the ability of aircraft to sink seriously damaged or a naval vessel at present constructed, the general tenor of the report is decidedly favourable to the contention of naval officers that the introduction of the aeroplane has not revolutionised modern naval warfare. However, the joint board recognises that the development of the aeroplane has introduced a new menace to the battleship which the nation must meet and has added to the complexity of naval warfare. Therefore, it is recommended, the science of aviation should receive particular attention and the construction of aeroplane carriers be undertaken.

While officiating at a wedding the Rev. D. E. M. Simmonds, vicar of St. Andrew's Church, Ramsbottom, Lancashire, dropped dead. A clergyman from a neighbouring parish completed the ceremony. Mr. Simmonds was 78.

Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt has had a slight accident at Belle-sur-Mer, her beautiful island home off the coast of Brittany. She slipped and fell, hurting her leg and rendering surgical attention necessary. Her general health is not seriously affected.

"A friend from New Zealand recently brought me some charming jewellery made entirely of gum," writes a woman correspondent. "It resembles amber; in fact, at first I thought it was amber. A heart-shaped pendant was of a wonderful transparency, while a brooch was made of a piece that was clouded and deep in colour."

A perambulator containing a 16-month old baby was left by the child's grandmother at Sehill Railway Station, near Newcastle, while she went for a moment to the waiting-room. The perambulator moving forward, fell on the line in front of a light engine, which passed over and killed the child.

An American named Hyppolyte Martinet is walking round the world with bare feet, accompanied by a dog and carrying on his shoulders his entire belongings. He seems very happy. He started from Seattle, Washington and crossed the Rockies to the Atlantic. His subsequent route was by way of Antwerp, Paris, Lyons, Marseilles, Nice, and Geneva.

The Russian newspaper says the Berlin correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, contains a decree signed by Commissary of Education Lunacharsky, forbidding the mention of fairies, angels or devils in fairy tales. "Angels" are to be supplanted by "scientists and technicians who have served humanity" and "princely heroes" are "to be represented in their true colour as oppressors and despots."

If you want to be really up-to-date in American "feminine" society nowadays you acquire a famous miniature artist and have a picture done on a finger-nail. The process is not explained but it is said that the tiny portrait, usually of a fiancee, is charming against the racy background of the finger-nail. It seems not to be suggested that the portrait is necessarily permanent. And that is perhaps just as well!

INTERPORT POLO.

SHANGHAI TEAM ON WAY.

According to a cable from our Shanghai correspondent, received here yesterday, the Shanghai Interport Polo team left there by the "Empress of Russia," on Saturday, and is due here via Manila on Thursday, October 6.

The Interport match is fixed for Monday, October 10. For Wednesday, October 12, a Polo Gymkhana preceded by a four chukkas match between the Shanghai Light Horse and a Hongkong team representing the Army Past and Present, is proposed.

The A. P. and P. will be represented by Major Timmis, Capt. Johnson, Lieut. Dodington and Mr. J. Bell Irving.

The S.L.H. was to have been represented by the Interport team, with the exception of J. H. Brennan, who was to have been substituted by A. David, their reserve man. However, it has now been definitely decided that David will not make the trip here, and it looks as if the Interport team will have to play the A. P. & P.

The Gymkhana programme will include an Interport Section Test: Pegging competition. As this is a sport which Shanghai follows keenly, strong competition is assured.

The other events will be: Catching Tennis Ball: Gentlemen to ride at full gallop and throw tennis balls to ladies, who will catch them. Three runs.

Polo: Competitors will be mounted and will start from far side of Polo Ground near stables, and hit a golf ball round a post with any golf club except a putter, to a hole opposite the Pavilion. First competitor holding out to win. Competitors to provide their own golf clubs and balls.

Greens Green Stakes: Gentlemen mounted will ride to a point where mares will be waiting them, and where they will hand over their ponies. They will then run to the place where their lady partners in rishes will be waiting them, and pull them to the winning post. Riches will be provided.

Musical Chairs: Competitors will ride bare backed.

Threading Needle Race: Gentlemen carrying a needle and thread will ride to a point where their mares will wait them, and where they will thread the needle. Ladies may help to light the cigarette in any way they like, but may not assist in threading the needle. Gentlemen will return mounted, and the first gentleman to light the winning post with his cigarette lighted and his needle threaded will win.

Favourable weather has enabled the Hongkong team to put in much practice, playing three times a week. This has given them good opportunity for studying each other's play, also the ponies, which are in fine fettle, and pace well, although handicapped a little by the hard ground.

The Shanghai ponies too, are in good trim. They are being put through their paces at the Racecourse every morning, and give very good account of themselves.

This week the practices have been fixed for Monday, Wednesday and Friday, so that the players will be able to get in their three days' practice and attend the Gymkhana on Saturday. Next week the Interport match will be played on Monday, and the Polo Gymkhana takes place on Wednesday. On Saturday, October 10, it is proposed to commence a tournament which will probably last a month. Some very interesting games are assured.

CONTEST HERE OCTOBER 10.

SOME SHANGHAI NOTES.

Under the heading "Polo Notes;" "The Club's Top Energetic Coolie: Hongkong's Interport Representative," the N.C.D. News of September 26, says:—

With that ironical humour for which Clotcho, Lachis and Atropos are not unjustly famed, as the Polo season draws to a close and the pick of the ponies are already on their way to Hongkong to assist in defending the cup, with the team to follow in a few days, never have we enjoyed any finer week-end overhauled, nor has the ground underfoot been in better condition. The fact that the precocious foresight of the race among whom we live not unnaturally causes the groundman to remove the essentials of play and practice, to wit, the boundary boards, long before necessary, on the grounds "My thinkie no wanthee," is a matter not to be wondered at in a country where youth is taught to wear its waistcoat outside its coat and paradoxically to close its trousers at the bottom in preference to the top. Rather are those still desirous of playing to be congratulated on their good fortune in having the very excellent turf left on the ground for their delectation, for it would seem that only by a gross and most unusual oversight has the worthy club coolie left so valuable a perquisite untouched.

However, this latter premature pleasure on his part is in all probability a blessing in disguise, for it has enabled the Interport team to practice control of distance as well as direction, and must, therefore, be welcomed as an unlooked for opportunity and beneficial experience.

THE HONGKONG PLAYERS.

Latest news from Hongkong indicates that the Crown Colony will be represented by Major Timmis, of the Garrison and of Interport fame, at back, Captain Neville, the Governor's A.D.C., at No. 3, Mr. Bibb, the honorary secretary of the Hongkong Polo Club, at No. 2, and Mr. Sergeant at No. 1. This team it was that recently played a visiting American team composed of the members of General Leonard Wood's party, captained by Mr. Wm. Forbes, ex-Governor of Manila. The Hongkong team was successful, but too much cannot be gathered from this, as the strength of the visitors is not known here. However, as it is reported that Hongkong is well mounted—last year, be it remembered, their mounts were if anything slightly superior to the Shanghai, product—our team apparently will have all its work cut out successfully to defend the trophy during so short a stay.

POSSIBLE GAME AT MANILA.

The team leaves on the R.M.S. "Empress of Russia" on October 1, via Manila, where it hopes to get a friendly game with the Manila Polo Club, this, of course, will necessitate borrowing mounts in this particular instance. The Shanghai-Hongkong Interport match itself will be played on Monday, the 10th, as the Hongkong Gymkhana Club find it impossible to postpone a gymkhana race meeting already arranged for Saturday, the 8th.

The date of the match, the Shanghai Light Horse v. the United Services, is not yet settled. However, with the club at Manila, a gymkhana meeting and two important Polo matches, the Shanghai team should not find many dull moments during their trip, and, when it is taken into consideration that the said trip is to be made on the R.M.S. "Empress of Russia," the finest ship of the fleet on the Pacific, on which travels the best jazz band afloat on the Seven Seas, well, as Harry Lauder remarks—"Get next."

LAWN BOWLS.

SHANGHAI PAIRS CHAMPIONSHIP.

The final of the Pairs Championship of the Shanghai Lawn Bowls Club, was played off on Saturday, September 24. A close and exciting game resulted in a win for Dunlop and McCallum, 23-19. Harborne and McCallum opened well, and were leading up to the 16th head. Dunlop and Simmons' victory was unexpected after the run of play in the opening half of the game. The winners scored at 12 ends and the losers at 9.

MYSTERIOUS MESSAGES.

WHAT ARE THE MARTIANS SAYING?

What is Mars saying in these mysterious messages which Marconi thinks he has picked up? If these ethiograms from the ruddy planet are no more important than the communications the psychic researchers extract so painfully from the spirit plane they can't amount to much. Considering how dry Mars is, according to the astronomers, it may be no more than what the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South Carolina, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

What language do the Martians talk across space to earth? And how shall we interpret it? The Egyptologists could not decipher the monuments until they picked up the Rosetta stone on which some obliging ancient had written the same thing three times—in hieroglyphics, vulgar Egyptian and Greek. But we can't converse with a Rosetta stone bearing a Martian document side by side with its translation into a language of earth.

Marconi has a scheme to transmit by wireless movies of a man with a dot and dash combination which the clever Martians will twig as our word symbol for a human being. From that start he thinks we can build up an earth-Martian pidgin. But how do we know that the Martians will recognize a man as anything believable under heaven. They may have no such funny looking creatures on their globe.

Communication with Mars sounds interesting, but it looks to be immensely complicated.

An action has been instituted in the Court of the Belgian Consulate-General at Shanghai, whereby Mr. L. W. Luyt, advocate, claims from the Banque Belge pour l'Etanger the sum of Shanghai Tls. 43,990.97 due upon a contract for exchange under which the Bank is alleged to have sold to him in August, 1920, the sum of £20,000 T.T. at the rate of 6s. for delivery up to Chinese New Year, which was on February 7 last, when the rate had dropped to 3s. 5d.
